To the Honorable Court of County Commissioners for the County of Oxford at their adjourned Term, July, 1649:

July, 1649:

THE undersigned Petitioners would respectfully represent, that the road from or near John H. Chadbourn's in Summer, via. Jackson Village (so called) to Crockett's Point (so called) is extremely hilly and circuitous, and that alterations in the old road may be made and a new location for a part of the distance, so as greatly to facilitate the public travel, and that the same is of "common convenience and necessity:" Your Petitioners therefore ask that your Honors, after due notice, view the route, commencing at a hub standing on the County road leading from Woodstock to Summer, West of John R. Chadbourn's, via. of Jackson Village (so called) to the County road leading from Summer to Buckfield at or near Crockett's point (so called) and make such alterations and locations as you in your judgment may deem expedient, and as in bound, &c.

Oxford, ss.—At a Court of County Commissioners begun and holden at Paris, within and for the County of Oxford, on the sixteenth day of July A. D. 1840, by adjustment from the second Tuesday of May, A. D. 1840. A. D. 1940, by adjournment from the second Tuesday of May, A. D. 1840.

On the foregoing Pertion, it being satisfactorily shown to the Court that the petitioners are responsible and that a hearing is expedient, it is hereby Ordered, that the County Commissioners will meet at the dwelling house of John R. Chadbourn in Summer, on the 28d day of August, A. D. 1841, at ten-u'clock A. M., when they will proceed to view the route set forth in the petition, and immediately after such view at some convenient place in the vicinity, will give a hearing to the parties and the windsses; by causing attested copies of said Petition and this Order of Notice thereoff to be served on the Clerk of the town of Sumner, and by posting up like copies in three public places in said town of Sumner, and by publishing the same three weeks uccessively in the Oxford Democrat, a public Newspaper printed at Paris in the County of Oxford, the first of said publications and each of the other notices to be made, served and posted at least thirty days before the said time of meeting, to the end that all persons and corporations interested may then and there appear and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

Attest—WM. K. KIMBALL, Clerk.

To the Hon. County Commissioners for the County of Oxford: of Oxford:

YOUR Petitioners, Inhabitants of the towns of Rumford, Mexico, Roxhury and Byron, would respectfully represent that a road from the County road near Rumford Centre to the Boat Landing near that place is very much needed, and that the public convenience and wearls requires that a road should be located between the two places to accommodate the increasing traveling public of the above mentioned places: We would therefore respectfully request your Honorable body to examine the proposed route, and locate the same if you, in your judgment should deem proper, as in duty bound will over pray, JAMES M. DOLLOFF & 28 others.
